Bring your Canadian Tire Money to the Pearl And delight in a fine and fun concert.

Jonathan Byrd / Raghu Lokanathan / Corin Raymond

Friday, January 27th at 7:30 pm doors at 8pm show, $20/$10 artists and students.

Jonathan Byrd joins Bob Dylan, Leonard Cohen, and Joni Mitchell on the Chicago Tribune's list of the 50 most significant singer-songwriters of the last 50 years. www.jonathanbyrd.com

Raghu Lokanathan spins vividly clever, sympathetic stories that showed a dark, and darkly humorous, edge. "He writes songs like they used to a long time ago." Utah Phillips <http://www.raghumusic.com>

Corin Raymond is making the news with his underground anthem "Canadian Tire Money", in aid of pulling in enough of the currency to fund his next album. Fans are mailing stacks of 5-cent and 10-cent bills. Go to the site www.dontspendithoney.com, send it off or bring your Canadian Tire to The Pearl.

Corin is also the Toronto-based troubadour whose band is the 'Sundowners' and who is half of the 'Undesirables'. John Prine comparisons often come his way. He is a Pearl favourite; a wonderful, warm human being who brings the best singer/songwriters he can find to Hamilton's Pearl. His songwriting talent is impressive; his personality entertains and inspires. He is also the guy whose play "Bookworm" was the audience favourite at last summer's Hamilton Fringe Festival <https://www.facebook.com/CorinRaymondMusic>

PS. The CT$ s are for Corin; not for The Pearl.
Admission is regular Canadian currency please.
