

Theatre Collingwood Summer Season

"Fantasy, Fame & Deathly Games 2010"

NEWS RELEASE

Collingwood, ON - August 12, 2010 – "Tap your toes to your favourite country western hits during Theatre Collingwood's second production of the summer series."

Musical theatre sensation Leisa Way celebrates the memory and musical soul of legendary country music icon Patsy Cline. This concert is filled with anecdotes and insights detailing the highs and lows of one of the greatest female performers of all time. Join us for this spectacular tribute accompanied by a 4-piece country band that includes Bruce Ley from The Tommy Hunter Show band. You'll hear 30 of Patsy Cline's greatest hits including Crazy, Bill Bailey, Walkin' After Midnight, I Fall to Pieces, Just a Closer Walk With Thee, and more!

Performance location: Gayety Theatre

Box Office: Theatre Collingwood, Rail Car beside Museum, 45 St. Paul St, Mon-Fri 11am-3pm

Dates: August 16-21, 2010

Sit on the edge of your seat during Theatre Collingwood's suspense-thriller, the final production of the summer theatre season, written by Anthony Shaffer.

Deceit, jealousy, drama, murder, counterplots and double crosses – SLEUTH has it all. But it's hard to tell who has the upper hand in this comic, suspenseful, surprise-laden 'whodunwhat'. An eccentric mystery novelist invites his wife's lover to match wits in a breathtaking cat-and-mouse game of intrigue and excitement. Is it obsessive game playing or dangerous reality...and who is the victim in this deadly chain of events that leaves bodies on the carpet, blood on the stairs, and detectives at the door?
