Norfolk Wildlife Festival & Adventure Show
“Where the Great Outdoors Moves Indoors for 2 Days!”

March 4th 2010, Simcoe – The 8th Annual Norfolk Wildlife Festival & Adventure Show is gearing up to kick off Spring Break with two days of family fun and entertainment.

This year’s festival features 5 great shows! Jungle Cat World will be returning this year and offering an incredible opportunity to view a tiger cub, a lemur and a serval, among other interesting animals! The Canadian Canine College will host a show of canine sports with rally obedience and tricks and after the show join them for a “pat and chat” and obtain a “paw-o-graph” from your favourite canine athlete. Little Ray’s Reptile Zoo will be returning with more exciting creatures, and as always, Little Ray provides hands on entertainment and fun. Saturday only, the Muskoka Wildlife Centre will be back by popular demand and with them they will bring a beaver, a porcupine and a lynx. New this year is David Arama better known as “Survivor guy” from the W.S.C Survival School. David will teach and entertain with great outdoor survival tips, calls of the wild and demonstrate how to make a fire without matches!

Lots to see and do for the entire family! Scale the 24’ climbing wall sponsored by Scotiabank, watch and participate in all the fantastic shows. Browse the over 25 exhibits, get a FREE balloon animal. See Scienstational Sssnakes! A camp-style lunch with refreshments will be available. Enter to win great door prizes such as a FREE zip-line for two by Long Point Eco-Adventures. Listen to Gerry & Kate in the morning on CD98.9 for your chance to win FREE passes and Wildlife Festival T-shirts. Enter to win “A FREE Weekend Getaway” sponsored by Comfort Inn by visiting our website at www.norfolkcountyfair.com deadline is March 7th.
